LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 10.—United States regulars of the First Division marched the streets of Lexington today to prevent a recurrence of rioting which caused the death of five persons and the wounding of a score yesterday.

Mobs which attacked the court-house during the trial of Will Lockwood, confessed murderer of General Simeon Hardman, 10, South Elkhorn school girl, scattered with the arrival of the second detachment of infantry late last night.

Soldiers were posted about the courthouse where Lockwood is confined pending removal to Frankfort state prison. Soldiers searched every person who appeared in the streets after dark. The veterans were posted on each of the twelve roads leading to Lexington and entrance to the city was refused.

Lexington is under martial law, according to the report of Brigadier General Francis C. Marshall.

Major General Charles P. Sumner, commander of Camp Taylor, Louisville, was to arrive here at noon to take command. State militia troops, which clashed with the mob yesterday, have been relieved and will return to their homes today.

Fabrique, Fournier Traded to St. Louis

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—The St. Louis club of the National League today traded four players to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast League in exchange for two.

By the terms of the deal St. Louis receives Jack Fournier, first baseman and one-time member of the White Sox, and "Bunny" Fabrique, a shortstop.

Los Angeles gets Grover Hartley, catcher; Jimmy McAulley, shortstop; Art Briggs, first baseman, recently purchased from Sacramento, and Betty Thomas, purchased from Seattle.

No Rain in North Is Expected for 36 Hours

With rain shortage conditions becoming more acute daily, there is no prospect of any precipitation in California for the next thirty-six hours, according to the forecast issued today in San Francisco by U. S. Weather Observer E. A. Beals.

The only encouraging feature in the situation, Beals said, is that records show the northern section of the state is more likely to receive a normal rainfall than the southern and in view of a rather copious rainfall in southern California during the past 24 hours, Beals believes it is probable that in the nature of things, rainfall will visit this section of the state next.

"I can't forecast more than 36 hours in advance," Beals said, "and as far as I can see there is to be no break in the clear, cold dry spell now prevailing in California. Our records show that the northern section of the state receives more generally its normal rainfall than the southern. The lower section of the state reports a rather serious precipitation. This leads me to believe that the next rain will be in this section, but just how soon I am unable to say."

FAIR TODAY AND WEDNESDAY

The forecast for tonight and Wednesday is generally fair throughout the entire state with from light to heavy frosts in the northern half of California and heavy to killing frost in the valley region. The most encouraging weather report received from the weather bureau for the past 24 hours came from the southern part of the state. The disturbance, however, has moved and now is centered over northwestern Arizona, bringing the rain in southern California.

Aside from rain shortage conditions which are far below normal throughout the state, the situation confronting hydro-electric companies and irrigators is particularly acute owing to the almost unprecedented shortage in snowfall. Out of eleven main stations reporting to the weather bureau last night, only six had registered snowfall and these figures ranged from 20 to 29 inches when they should range from 30 to 100 inches.

Among points reporting snowfall and the amount were: Huntington Lake, 29 inches; Glacier Point, 22; Cascade, 20; and Summit, 24. Beals refused to comment on the situation.

HOTEL MAN AND WIFE ROBBED BY BANDIT COUPLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Forced to leave their bed at the point of a revolver held by one of two unmasked young men who forced their way into their bedroom early this morning, Mrs. Emma Rodts and her husband, Andrew, proprietors of the Hotel Argo, 2432 Mission street, were compelled to remain motionless while the intruder ransacked the room, obtained more than $700 in currency and silver and a bank book, and escaped in an automobile.

Recognizing the two men by having seen them previously loitering about the hotel, Mrs. Rodts narrowly escaped harm at their hands when she attempted to wrest the revolvers from one of the pair in the belief that the holdup merely was a hoax.

Mrs. Rodts was awakened shortly after 2 o'clock by a loud knocking on the door of her apartment on the main floor of the hotel. When she opened the door she was confronted by the two men. They backed her into the room, closed the door and then compelled her husband to arise. Rodts told the men to stop their foolishness and let him go to sleep.

The men replied that they were not trifling and warned Rodts and his wife to back up against the window and remain motionless under pain of death. They then ransacked the room, jumping out the contents of bureau drawers and turning the bed topsy-turvy.

JAPANESE CITY IS CAPTURED BY BOLSHEVIKI

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 9.—Siberian Bolsheviki have captured Alexandrovsk, capital of the island of Sakhalin, and fear is felt that the radical forces may enter Japan proper, according to a special cable despatch from the Tokyo correspondent of Nippon Jiji, Honolulu Japanese language newspaper.

The Japanese government is negotiating with the Alexandrovsk authorities for the evacuation of the Japanese population from the city, the cablegram said.

Tokyo despatches under date of Saturday, January 31, reported Bolsheviki uprisings against Japanese residents on the island of Sakhalin and attacks against important Japanese mining and petroleum plants there. A rescue party had been dispatched to the island, the despatches said.

Sakhalin or Saghalin is a long, narrow island off the east coast of Siberia considerably north of Vladivostok. It is separated from the mainland by the Gulf of Tartary and has an area estimated at 23,400 miles. The population in 1897 was 23,113, of whom nearly one-half were convicts or banished offenders. The island was officially Russian until September, 1905, when the southern half was ceded to Japan by the terms of the treaty of Portsmouth, following the conclusion of the Russo-Japanese war.

The city of Alexandrovsk is not on the island, being on the mainland directly opposite. Legion Ball, Auditorium, Thursday eve.—Advertisement.

Political Fields

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(By The Associated Press).—Opening the political campaign of the American Federation of Labor, President Gompers in an address today before the Shipbuilding Trades convention here, asked the delegates to elect members of Congress and other officials favorable to organized labor. He promises every assistance of the federation in obtaining for the United States the greatest merchant shipping fleet in the world, through construction program.

Gompers said the failure of the Congress to carry the ship program to a logical conclusion, was typical of the Congress toward that body so far as all constructive legislation was concerned.

With the war over, he said, members of Congress are "talking themselves hoarse in the attempt to further invade the rights of the people of the United States."

"It is a policy just the reverse of that in every other country," the speaker asserted, describing the liberal movement in Europe. "It is your duty to see that this tendency toward autocracy is curbed. In our fight you can expect the bitterest opposition from every enemy of labor—especially from every standstill, reactionary and some tools on the 'bill'."

Gompers said that the Federation's campaign would be conducted on the same lines as those of the labor and that labor would be committed to any party, but would be used exclusively "to reward our friends and defeat our enemies."

Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado, moved to refer it to "Chairman Hays' committee of 171 on political matters," but the only consideration of the matter was a vigorous pounding of the gavel and a request for order from Vice President Marshall.

OUTSIDER SOCIALISTS ARE DEFENDED BY PALMER

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Defending the five Socialists refused seats in the New York legislature, Attorney General Mitchell Palmer, addressing the Chicago Association of Commerce, yesterday declared:

Improvement Is Noted In Foreign Exchange

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LONDON, Feb. 10.—A more comfortable feeling prevails in the money market and the tendency was to believe the worst was over. The feature of foreign exchange was the sharp recovery of the New York rate and Paris and Berlin rates were also higher.

Hope was entertained in the market that Premier Lloyd George may be able to announce in Parliament some decision by the government to call an international financial conference or possibly some other measures to deal with the financial problem.

I. W. W. FIGURE IN WHITNEY CASE

Pemberton, in O'Connor's illness, was unable to attend the examination of Inspector Thompson had been deferred before today when, at the opening of the case, he was sent to the witness chair by Harris. Then, for the third time, he was immediately excused when Coghlan asked further time in which to consider the line of cross-examination to be pursued.

L. W. W. LITERATURE READ

Harris followed the excuse of Thompson by presenting extracts from literature taken by the police in the raids on the local Communist Labor Party headquarters at Loring Hall. These were chiefly from a pamphlet on "Syndicalism" by Earl C. Ford and William Z. Foster. The booklet advised the substitution of direct action for political action. It defended sabotage and rioting, exemplifying with accounts of what saboteurs did following the general strike on the French railroads.

In preparation for the Cornwall testimony, he read from the program and platform of the Communist Labor Party, extracted to show that the national convention of the party endorsed the Industrial Workers and in general offered them sympathetic aid and support.

MANY WITNESSES ON HAND

Throwing open the doors to the I. W. W. testimony practically makes it possible to convert the present trial into a duplicate of the trial of James McGuire, former secretary of the local I. W. W., who was convicted of criminal syndicalism and sent to prison for an indeterminate sentence.

In addition to Cornwall, Deputy United States Marshal Shannon, Jack Diamond, former I. W. W., and Albert Coughlin, ex-convict and former I. W. W., were on hand awaiting the prosecution's call.

William B. Cleary, who defended McGuire, was a spectator in court today.

TULLY'S ROMANCE AT YE LIBERTY

"The Bird of Paradise," Richard Walton Tully's play of Hawaiian languor and romance, marked the official opening of the new spring dramatic season at Ye Liberty playhouse last night.

That "The Bird of Paradise" has lost none of its popularity during the nine years that it has been playing was evident from the reception tendered the Hawaiian play, Florence Rockwell, in the leading role of "Luna," the little Hawaiian princess whose life story of love and later her death in the depths of a volcano are recounted during the course of the play.

"Luna" is surrounded by an excellent company of twenty players and a quintet of native Hawaiian singers and dancers. The production is remarkable for its scenic effects, especially in the realism of the eruption of Mount Kilauea. Those who have seen the play before it was evident last night that Florence Rockwell's "Luna" is a different "Luna" than any of those who preceded her. She is really human and as near like the real "Luna" as the author of the play dared hope for. It is not a play, but a real bit of Hawaiian life which carries one from a theater seat to the brown sands of the islands.

Ranking next to Miss Rockwell is Brandon Evans, who plays the part of the beachcomber, John Summer, last seen here as the heavy in "Treasure Island," was at his best as "Hawabawa," the priest of Pele. The play obtains at Ye Liberty for the entire week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. "Twin

Universal Training Bill Voted Down by Democrats Despite Wilson's Appeal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Democratic members of the House, meeting in party caucus last night, refused to forego an expression of their position on universal military training in the face of an appeal from President Wilson that action be withheld so the party's stand might be left to its national convention.

By a vote of eighty-eight to thirty-seven the conference voted down proposal by Representative Doremus, Michigan, that no action be taken on the question. His motion was a substitute one proposing that the Democratic members declare their opposition to compulsory training.

Immediately afterward the Democrats by a vote of 105 to 17 went on record as against universal training, adopting a resolution declaring "it is the sense of this caucus that no measure should be passed by this congress providing for universal compulsory military service or training."

Though not binding on the Democratic membership of the House, the caucus decision was interpreted by Representative Caldwell of New York, who led the fight against the caucus action, as precluding the possibility of universal training being incorporated in the army reorganization bill that will soon be brought before Congress. In a formal statement after the conference, he said:

"The screaming funny bed-room farce, follows the attraction on next Sunday evening—S. T. B.

"Unless there is considerable change in sentiment on the Democratic side of the House, it is quite apparent there are not enough Republicans who favor universal training to include it in the reorganization bill."

Nevertheless, it is anticipated that both House and Senate will have to vote on the universal training proposal, for it is included in the Senate bill and Representative Kahn, Republican, California, chairman of the House military committee, which is framing the House bill, reiterated last night his intention of pressing adoption of the plan.

President Wilson in his letter, which was presented at the caucus after being made public during the day, declared any action that would make the proposal a party issue would be "unfortunate."

Debate in the caucus by those favoring universal training reflected the President's stand. Representatives, Virginia and Dent, Alabama, were among the speakers opposing the acceptance of his argument. Though urging rejection of the President's stand, these and other Democrats offered no personal criticism of either the President or Secretary of War Baker, who recently announced his support of universal training.

After the caucus, some of the Democrats frankly stated that their action was an assertion of their "independence" in the belief that they knew the sentiment of the country rather than either the President or the party leaders.

COURT RELEASES DRINK DISPENSER

Declaring that the present ordinance for the regulation and licensing of intoxicating liquors was never intended to apply to beverages containing less than one per cent of alcohol, Judge A. F. St. Sure of the Superior Court has reversed a decision of Police Judge George Samuels and released A. J. Anesi, East Oakland grocer, on the charge of selling liquor without a license.

Judge St. Sure paraphrased the language used by the Supreme Court in another case and said: "If it is deemed proper by the City of Oakland to regulate and license dealers in non-intoxicating beverages, it may do so by proper legislation, but such intent is shown by the existing laws of the city."

BISHOP BURIAL FOR TOMORROW

Funeral services for Dr. Simeon Bishop, noted figure of the gold rush days of Nevada, and friend of Mark Twain and of Alexander Bowers, who died at his home in San Francisco, will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Victory Lodge No. 474, F. and A. M., is to have charge of the services and interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

Dr. Bishop died Saturday night after retiring in apparently good health. He was a native of Erie county, Pennsylvania, and was 88 years old.

Shortly following his arrival in San Francisco in 1850, he went to Nevada where he aided in the organization of the first stock exchange in Virginia City. It was here that he became a close friend of Alexander Bowers, a member of the army reorganization bill, who became famous through his connection with the Comstock lode, and of Mark Twain, then a newspaper man of Virginia.

For several years prior to his return to San Francisco, twenty years ago, Dr. Bishop was superintendent of the State Hospital for the insane in Nevada. He was prominent in educational work and was known from one end of the state to the other.

Dr. Bishop is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rowena Harris Bishop, by three sons, Frederick W. Bishop, William J. Dabbert, a member of the Fire Department, who was recently discharged by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety P. F. Morse.

Winham was suspended several months ago on charges of dishonesty preferred by School Director Fred A. Campbell, who will present the prosecution tonight. Dabbert was accused of having received a bribe while in an intoxicated condition. The two cases are the only remaining ones to be heard by the Board.

Notification from the Electrical Workers' Union of an increased wage scale will be presented to the Board tonight by Secretary Frank C. Colburn for consideration. The new scale calls for $3 a day for journeymen workmen, $200 a month for maintenance men, and $225 a month for electrical inspectors.

JAPANESE EVADE CENSUS, CHARGES SENATOR PHELAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Charging that Japanese in California were attempting to evade the census enumeration in an effort to ally themselves with the majority of the real number should become known, Senator Phelan of California made public a letter from C. C. Rowan, census supervisor for the ninth California district, saying that an accurate enumeration of the Japanese was impossible under the per capita plan of paying city enumerators.

At the rate of payment of four cents a head, Rowan said, enumerators could not afford to hunt out "elusive aliens."

The appointment of special enumerators, paid by the day, to canvass the districts was suggested as the only means by which the real statistics could be obtained.

AID FOR ARMENIA, PLEA OF HEROINE

The Oakland Near East Relief Committee and many society and club women extended a welcome today to the First Congregational church, Twelfth and Clay streets, to Lady Ann Azgabetian, wife of Armenia's army commander, heroine of the Russian Red Cross and first lady in Asia Minor.

Lady Azgabetian spoke on her native country. Lady Azgabetian has been devoting all her efforts toward alleviating the suffering in her land, where thousands are dying of starvation and pleads that at least the children be allowed to live.

The Near East Relief committee, her the Oakland citizens have adopted more than seventy children and the Oakland committee plans to make it 400.

Among the recent adoptions announced by the committee are two each by Mrs. A. A. Moore Jr. and the First Baptist church, and an additional adoption by the First Congregational church and the Brooklyn Armenian babies.

PLEA DELIVERED
FOR 'FLU' NURSES

"One mother put a mustard plaster smack-dab on her baby's back without a word of warning, when she took it off, off came baby's skin, too," said Mrs. O. T. Mortimer, head of the volunteer women aiding the health bureau in caring for influenza patients in Oakland.

Mrs. Mortimer made a plea to members of the Technical High School Parent-Teachers' Association yesterday afternoon for nurses.

"We need nurses badly; even if you have but a few hours, it would help a lot if you ladies would call Lakeside 3600, Local 90, and volunteer to make a visit to the sufferers; there are approximately 1700 influenza cases in Oakland today and we have been able to register but 257 nurses," said Mrs. Mortimer.

Last year we had the teachers to help, but this year schools are in session and we are short-handed.

"I visited a home the other day where a mustard plaster had been left on a baby three days. It is surprising how little some people know about care of sick in the home and we need practical nurses to demonstrate mustard applications, pulse-taking, bed bathing and a few other simple means of checking influenza."

Mrs. Mortimer gave instances of families where ten and eleven were sick in bed with influenza, with no one to wait upon them until the health bureau was able to send a nurse.

Funeral for Mrs. Kyle

Treasure Is Stolen

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Captain J. E. Miller of the Pacific Mail liner Colusa, which arrived here yesterday, reported the robbery of $60,000 from the British liner Fung Sang, which arrived at Singapore from Hongkong two days before the Colusa sailed from that port.

The Fung Sang's specie tanks had been cut into by means of an acetylene torch, a number of treasure tanks opened and iron placed in them in place of gold bars.

NATIONAL GUARD LEADERS NAMED

The move to secure one or more National Guard units for Oakland and an appropriate armory for the housing of the units was given added impetus this morning with the opening of a campaign in which a committee named today by Mayor John L. Dwyer and consisting of former members of the guard, will co-operate with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce.

Mayor Dwyer appointed the following committee for the campaign: Colonel Ralph J. Faneuf, chairman; Lieutenant Colonel Fred W. Petersen, Major Harry F. Huber, Captain Walter J. Petersen, Captain John H. Fahy, Captain George H. Knudsen and Captain A. G. Waddell.

The committee will co-operate with a similar body appointed as a sub-committee of the civic interests committee of the Chamber of Commerce, consisting of Milton Mazor, chairman; J. B. Stegge, E. W. Cannon, H. L. Hagan and George W. Langan.

The two committees will hold a joint meeting for further discussion of the question Friday night.

STONE PROJECT PLAN SETTLED

Temporary settlement of the controversy over the petition of the E. B. and A. L. Stone company for the formation of a reclamation district on San Leandro Bay was reached this morning at a meeting of the city council.

In the face of protests against the formation of the district including lands that lie outside of the city of Oakland, attorneys representing the company this morning withdrew their original petition asking the council to take steps to form the district, and presented a second petition including in their request only such lands in the area as lie in Oakland.

In order to complete the district, another petition of a similar nature will be presented to the city council of Alameda, including that portion of the proposed district as lies in that city.

The settlement and the amended petition were submitted by the council to City Attorney H. L. Hagan for a decision on the legality of the move.

Mid-Month List of

Columbia Records

"You Aint Heard Nothin' Yet" Till You Hear Al Jolson

Al tells you all about his sweetheart—or almost all—in this latest Sinbad hit. The famous laugh of this exclusive Columbia artist is featured twice, and he keeps you laughing all the time. Coupled with Billy Murray's speedy, tuneful song, "Come On and Play With Me." A-2836—85c.

Oh, what a Jazz is Ted Lewis Jazz Band's "O!"

Just as these exclusive Columbia artists seem to have tied themselves into a musical knot in this syncopated fox-trot, introducing "THE VAMP," they extricate themselves by a melodious miracle and jazzmerrily. Coupled with Gorman's Novelty Syncopators' fox-trot "Barkin' Dog." A-2844—85c.

Hickman Trio Hits the High Spots

The Hickman Trio, from Art Hickman's Orchestra, which makes records for Columbia exclusively, jazzes the fox-trot "Nobody Knows" and the one-step "Wonderful Pal" in a way to make an aged cripple forget he ever had the gout. A-2839—85c.

HAD SUFFERED TWENTY YEARS

Gains Twelve Pounds And Is Restored To Perfect Health By Taking Tanlac.

"It was Tanlac that overcame my twenty years of suffering and I am now ready to tell the world about this remarkable medicine," said Frank A. Gardner, who owns and operates a vegetable garden at the corner of Illinois and Mount View avenues, Los Angeles, Cal.
"It was back in 1900 that my health broke down," he continued, "and since that time I have suffered all the misery that goes with stomach trouble, nervousness, sleeplessness and general run-down condition. I could not eat a meal without bloating all up with gas and having a few pains and cramps in my stomach. My heart palpitated so bad I thought I had heart trouble and I went about all the time with a heavy, stuffy feeling. I was so extremely nervous that at times I could not stand up and would have to stop work and lie down. At night I would roll and toss so that I could hardly get any rest at all and many a time I got no more than two hours' sleep. Then when morning came I felt worse than I did the night before and was so weak I never wanted to get out of bed. A year ago I got so bad off I gave up my position with the American Olive Oil Co. and had been employed for fourteen years, and started a vegetable garden in the hopes that outdoor work would help me but kept growing weaker and weaker all the time.
"A friend of mine told me what Tanlac had done for him, so I started taking it, and now I can say it has restored me to perfect health after twenty years of suffering. I am now careful about what I eat now because everything agrees with me and I am never troubled with indigestion any more. My nerves are steady and at night I sleep like a log. I have gained twelve pounds in weight, can do as big a day's work as any man and am as sound as a dollar in every way. I feel better than I have in twenty years and I never lose an opportunity to praise Tanlac.

RETAIN RAIL REFORM, PLEA OF DIRECTOR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Reviewing "efficiencies and economies accomplished in various phases of railroad operation by the Railroad Administration," W. T. Tyler, director of operations, recommended in his annual report today to Director General Hines that "most effective reforms" be continued after the roads are returned to private control, March 1. His recommendations included "That arrangements be made to set up, at least in skeleton form, the organization necessary to control movement of traffic to and via ports whenever traffic conditions warrant by the placing of embargoes and the issuance of permits."

"That every effort be made to continue and extend the pooling of lake and tidewater tolls, the railroads maintaining the necessary organizations to handle such traffic."

"That the railroads continue to establish uniformity in rules governing car supply for various important commodities handled."

"That the centralized control of cars be continued under proper limitations and the central organizations of the railroads themselves."

"That the centralized control of freight shipments, he pointed out the congestion which results from indiscriminate efforts to move freight for which the roads have no outlet. The remedy, he said, is the control of this freight at its source through the placing of embargoes, or the consignee's ability to accept, the railroads' facilities, or the ports' capacity."

He added that 344 terminals had been consolidated during federal control.

OCEAN-GOING TUG FIREBOAT FOR OAKLAND

Oakland is to have a fireboat! But it will not belong to the city, nor will it be under the administration of the fire chief. Yet it will respond to all fire alarms along the waterfront.

This announcement was made today by the Oakland Launch and Tugboat Company. Captain Charles H. Ehler, general manager of the company, has secured an ocean-going tug and fireboat combined to work in connection with his fleet of gasoline tugs. The boat will be equipped with complete fire apparatus and will make its home at the Franklin street dock, when not accompanying a tug of gas, and when at home will respond to all fire alarms along the waterfront which can be reached by the powerful stream its engines will throw. Captain Ehler regrets that his tug cannot stay home all the time to be handy in case of fire. The fire tug will be known as the Gleaser and will be the first boat of its kind to inhabit the Oakland harbor.

FUND ASKED TO EXTEND AERIAL MAIL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Plans for vastly extending the airplane mail service were laid before the Senate postoffice committee today by Assistant Postmaster General Praeger.

Praeger asked for $3,400,000 for air mail service to be used on the present New York to Chicago and New York to Washington routes and on the following proposed routes: New York to San Francisco, via Omaha, Pittsburgh to Kansas City, via St. Louis, Detroit to Cleveland, via Toledo, St. Louis to St. Paul and Minneapolis, via Chicago.

MAN OF HOUSE AND CAT CAUSE BURGLAR SCARE

"Come quick. There are three burglars in the house. They don't know they are discovered yet. They are in the kitchen now," was the message that reached the northern police station over the telephone.
It was from Mrs. Pauline A. Schmidt, 4135 Howe street.
"Are you sure there are three of them?" asked the sergeant on duty as he made mental calculations of the number of policemen available.
"Yes, indeed. They are making a terrible noise," said the excited woman.
The patrol wagon, loaded with six officers, made a record run to the house. Four men were let outside to guard against the escape of the marauders, and two men, with drawn revolvers, approached the house.
Before the burglars were let down, they saw several pans scattered on the floor. One of them had contained milk. A large Thomas cat was licking up the milk. The burglar alarm had been caused by the noise of the pans knocked off the floor by the cat.
"That's the last time I'll trust John to put that cat out nights," said Mrs. Schmidt.

Briton Lauds 'Red's' Ideals Following Visit to Moscow

LONDON, Feb. 19. (By The Associated Press)—George Lansbury, former socialist member of the House of Commons, news of whose projected trip to Soviet Russia caused considerable surprise in official circles here, arrived in Moscow on Sunday.

In a telegram to the Herald, organ of the Labor Party, he gives his first impressions of the situation at the Soviet capital. He declares scenes outside of the railroad station were similar to those at the "terrors" in England. People were looking remarkably well considering the privations suffered from hunger, cold and sickness.

"The outstanding fact," Lansbury says, "is that the blockade and civil war have not been allowed to interfere with the progress of the revolution."

"Churches are all open and the people are going in and out of the churches as they did in the past."

"The churches are being restored at the public expense, true religion has not been interfered with and marriage is as sacred as ever. There is nothing worse here than in other capital cities."

PACT FIGHT IS NOW SET FOR MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Lodge today reported the peace treaty to the Senate for the foreign relations committee. He gave notice that he will ask the treaty be taken up next Monday for consideration.

"I will let the matter lie over for a few days because so many senators on both sides are absent. About thirty-five in all are away and others are about to go away," said Lodge.

"The President's discussion of the treaty and the Senate at once returned to its regular legislative business."

WILSON ACCEPTS CHANGES WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Wilson is willing to accept a compromise on Article X of the League of Nations covenant. This was stated at the White House today.

Furthermore, the President is hopeful that the Democrats and the "mild reservationists" may reach a compromise on all reservations and it was learned that the President would favor such action.

Based on the Hitchcock reservation, President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock, which was read at the Democratic caucus last Saturday, has been misinterpreted, it was said at the White House.

FORFEIT AGREEMENT The President intended to inform Senator Hitchcock that he was willing to accept the substance of the Hitchcock reservation to Article X and was also in support of the reservations put forth by Senator Hitchcock in the bi-partisan conference.

The President believes firmly that a satisfactory compromise will be reached between the Democrats and the "mild reservationists" when the treaty reaches the floor again, it was learned.

World Politics and Bible, Divorce Angles SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—Whether it is worse to term "The Star Spangled Banner" a "horrible tune," to cheer for King George, instead of President Wilson on Armistice Day, to refuse to buy Liberty Bonds and to flout American citizenship acquired by marriage; or to keep a woman awake by quoting passages from the Bible, which contain verses to be used as a deterrent to marriage, or to be more considerate of a mother than a wife, was duly discussed by Samuel T. Farquhar and Mrs. Ethelreda Farquhar, 2728 Union street, yesterday before Judge E. P. Morgan in a suit for divorce.

Mrs. Farquhar alleges that her husband offered her to her when he insisted upon reading the morning paper at the breakfast table. Farquhar charged that his wife tore the paper from his hand when he attempted to read it. Judge Morgan has continued the case until next week.

Mrs. Farquhar came from Australia to wed after a brief acquaintance and a year's correspondence. Farquhar is manager of a local advertising company.

Riot and Shooting Attend $250,000 Gaming House Fire

MEXICALI, Lower California, Feb. 19.—Another landmark of the vanishing west met destruction here last night, when to the accompaniment of screams, shots and roaring flames the old Owl gambling house and its attendant structures were destroyed by fire.

The loss was estimated by Manager F. B. Byers to be in excess of $250,000. The wounding of three men who attempted to rob the gambling tables, the injury of two or three women caught within a wall of flames and attempts of Mexicans to hamper American firemen from Calexico by cutting their hose lines and stealing parts of their apparatus, were added features of the fire, which raged for three hours and destroyed all the buildings in the immense block of ground where the Owl stood.

The fire started in a room on the second floor of the Owl building, which was of frame construction. A Chinese employee shouted a warning, but the flames spread so rapidly that the hundreds of more persons crowded about the gambling tables, bar and stage on the lower floor had scant time to escape. As they struggled through the entrance some of the cooler headed players tried to sweep up the abandoned money on the tables and three of them were shot by guards.

Byers and his employees were aided by the Mexican rurales and police in saving the money and much of the gambling equipment. A truck carried more than 700 pounds of silver coin to a Calexico bank, just across the international boundary, and within a mile of the scene. Other messengers carried over paper and gold money. Some of the more expensive gambling equipment was also hurried across the line, after assurance had been given that it could be returned when the excitement died down.

The destruction of the Owl leaves one large gambling house in Mexicali, a Chinese establishment, where many of the games are beyond the ken of the average American. It leaves a gambling house at Tia Juana as the largest now operating along the California border, but the latter place has only a bar as an adjunct, the other features of the old Owl being absent.

The Owl was owned by Byers, Frank Allen and G. W. Withington.

San Francisco, Feb. 19.—Inquiry into the causes for the many continuances and final dismissal, in police court, of the case of Bernard Catterlin, charged with shooting Mrs. Marie Nanni and her daughter, is occupying the attention of the court.

In connection with the Catterlin trial, C. Vincent Riccardi, bail bond broker and attorney, has charged that Pete McDonough obtained from him $1500 for "fixing" the case. The trial was set before Police Judge John J. Sullivan, and witnesses testified it was postponed seven times and then dismissed for lack of evidence. Mrs. Nanni and her daughter were subpoenaed to testify and it was expected that they would say that at no time did they favor allowing the prosecution of Catterlin to cease.

John F. Gallagher, stenographer in Judge Sullivan's court, is another witness being heard. He was excused last week on account of an error in the subpoena.

Another point that is being considered by the jury is the returns per capita made to the city from fines in police courts. It has been shown that San Francisco's return is far below the average and that, in 1918, it received only $15,145. There are but sixteen cities among a total of 227 with a population of over 20,000 which show less receipts per capita.

That a vote may have been taken by the jury in its session of last night is inferred from a statement of Foreman W. H. Harrelson, who said, earlier in the day, that he expected such action. If anything of the kind did transpire it is being guarded as a secret.

Flees Insane Asylum; Checks Bilk Hundreds SANTA ANA, Cal., Feb. 19.—Hundreds of worthless checks were credited by the police to Ralph Hazlett, who after he was arrested here for the alleged theft of an automobile, told the officers, they said, that he escaped more than a year ago from the Allegheny county (Pennsylvania) institution for the insane.

"I have passed hundreds of checks in the East and in California," the police said Hazlett said. "Never has one of them been questioned."

NEWMAN BANKER FREED ON BAIL

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19.—W. J. Burris, president of the First National bank of Newman, has been released on bail of $40,000. Burris was held in the county jail here on a federal warrant following the closing by federal examiners of the Newman bank. A shortage of about $500,000 was said to exist in the bank's funds.

Security for Burris' release was given by five Stanislaus county ranchers and was approved by United States Commissioner Wallace Shepard here.

Burris said when he was brought to Sacramento that he would make no attempt to give bail. This decision was changed after conferences with Mrs. Burris, who came here to be near her husband while he was in jail.

SO EASY! LIKE ROLLING OFF LOG

Sore, touchy corns stop hurting, then lift right out with fingers

You corn-plagued men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says the Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of fragrant oil applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A quarter ounce of fragrant oil is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said to be as effective as any of the surrounding tissue or skin. After you lift away the troublesome corn or pink, firm the skin underneath it with firm and healthy as the palm of your hand.—Advertisement

BANK ENVOY DEPARTS FOR CHINA SOON

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. will leave Thursday for the Far East as the representative of the American group of bankers who are part of the Chinese consortium organized by banking groups in America, Great Britain, France and Japan, to assist the Chinese republic in her public enterprises. The official announcement of Lamont's intended departure tonight stated that in behalf of the American group he will visit Japan, then proceed to China and return to this country about June 1.

Lamont will be accompanied by Jeremiah Smith of Boston as advisory counsel and Martin Egan of the Morgan firm as personal aid.

INTERNATIONAL AID.
The present American banking group was organized in 1915 to deal with Chinese affairs and is now composed of more than thirty members, representing leading banks throughout the country. At the suggestion of the State Department, the international consortium was forwarded at a meeting in Paris, on May 19 of last year, representatives of the banking groups of Great Britain, France and Japan joining with the American group.

WARRANTS PUBLIC ISSUE.
That the four banking groups of the countries in question should act in concert and in an effective partnership for the interests of China, and that the consortium's operations should deal primarily with loans to the Chinese republic or to provinces of the republic or to provinces of the republic or with loans guaranteed or officially having to do with the republic or its provinces and in each instance of character sufficient to warrant a public issue.

The banking representatives agreed that the operations of the consortium should not interfere in any respect with private operations in China for the development of individual industrial, commercial and banking projects, but that where the general interests of the republic or its provinces were concerned the consortium would attempt to act as a unit and lend its financial aid to China.

Engineers Protest State Pay As Low

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The San Francisco chapter of the American Association of Engineers has instructed its ethics and compensation committee to register a protest to Governor Stephens and the state legislature against the alleged low wages paid engineers in the employ of the state.

The protest comes as a recent civil service examination for assistant engineers, which offered a salary of $250 a month to a man who, according to the protest, would be called upon to pass on important matters pertaining to hydroelectric and irrigation development.

Thugs Rap Gomez, Get Away With $80

As a finale to a convivial afternoon during which Jesse Gomez, 1903 Twenty-third, was made the rounds with two congenial companions, he was lured to a dark spot near Third and Cypress streets by his erstwhile friends, knocked in the head with a leaded stick, and robbed of his watch and $80 in cash.

Gomez was found unconscious by a pedestrian, who notified the police. Gomez was revived and taken to the Emergency hospital for treatment. He was later taken to the police station for investigation. After securing descriptions of his assailants, the police released the man.

BLUE EXPLAINS U. S. AID DUE SICK SOLDIERS

Because many discharged sick or disabled soldiers do not know the extent of Federal aid they are entitled to, Surgeon-General Blue has sent out a circular all over the United States which explains how Federal aid may be obtained and which urges all soldiers suffering from disease or injury to apply to the government.

"A great many of the discharged men disabled in the war," says the circular, "are buying their own artificial limbs, paying for medical attention or neglecting themselves, in spite of the fact that they can have the very best of treatment from the government."

"The government furnishes artificial limbs, glass eyes, braces for deformed limbs, etc., free. It also examines the eyes to see whether the diseases are acute and looks after the teeth. In case of tuberculosis, or other diseases requiring like treatment, special sanatorium treatment is provided. Discharged soldiers are urged to write to the United States Public Health Service, Washington, D. C., for further details."

MARINES' GUARD HOUSE IS 'NUF

Twelve names appeared on the court calendar on Judge George Samuels' opposite charge of undue incarceration. In ten of the cases bail was forfeited and the city was richer by $100.

The last two cases to be called received suspended judgment decisions. Wilson Guile and Herbert W. Johnson, marines stationed at Mare Island, were the men charged with being drunk.

"Well, what have you two boys to say for yourselves," demanded Judge Samuels, turning a stern face and a twinkling eye upon the youths in the prisoners' dock.

"Nothing, your honor, except we were on our way to the barracks last night when we were put in jail and our leave was up last night and now we're A. W. O. L."

"And what will happen to you for that?"

"About three months in the guard house, your honor," said Guile.

"Well, that should be punishment enough," said the judge. "Judgment is suspended."

Herefords Will Be Crossed With Zebus

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The War Department, through its bureau of insular affairs, has purchased in Texas 100 Hereford bulls and twenty Hereford heifers for breeding into the stock of Philippine Zebu cows. The Herefords will be forwarded soon to the Philippines aboard an army transport for use in the island of Mindano.

SUPERVISORS TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

With the arrival in San Francisco of Dr. J. P. Marstella and S. F. Rutter, special prohibition field supervisors for the Pacific district, the first step was taken toward the organization of the prohibition enforcement forces of California. Arrangements were made to take over prohibition enforcement from the internal revenue department. Two officials will visit Oakland tomorrow in connection with their organization work.

Three thousand merchants out of the 9000 who deal in liquor in the first California internal revenue district, have not made a return of their stock on hand to the internal revenue collector, although today is the last day on which a report may be filed. Any undeclared liquor remaining after today in places of business, public or private warehouses, is subject to confiscation by the Government. The only way for the owner to avoid its seizure will be to take out a permit to sell it for non-beverage purposes.

According to Justice Wardell, eighty-five per cent of the liquor dealers have disposed of their stock in some manner. Most saloon keepers took their left-over stock home on January 16. In the case of stock companies disposing of large quantities of liquor, the intoxicants left on hand on January 16 were divided among the stockholders.

Japanese Line to Augment Its Fleet

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 10.—Further expansion of its trans-Pacific service is planned by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Japanese steamship corporation, following the grant to it of a new Japanese subsidy charter. It was learned here recently that the line had secured the Toyohashi Maru, 7031 tons, and the Taimi Maru, 6995 tons, are to be added to the fleet, it was said.

Under the new charter grant the Nippon Yusen Kaisha holds the only Japanese subsidy on the Japan-British Columbia-Puget Sound route. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha, which until recently shared the monopoly with the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, resigned from the field, it was believed, in order to secure the subsidy for Japan-South American East Coast route.

Retail Americanization Is Men's Club Utopia

Waste, presiding justice of the Appellate Court, will be the speaker tonight, his subject being "The Indirect Reward of Service." The church quartet will sing.

State Convention of Butchers Is Called

The Retail Butchers' Exchange and Boards of Trade of Oakland, San Francisco, San Jose, Sacramento and Los Angeles have called a state convention at Sacramento February 22 and 23 for the purpose of organizing a state body to take such steps as may appear to be necessary for the purpose of meeting the rapidly growing competition of Oriental butchers through out California.

Majority of Lawsuits By Poor, Says Judge

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The assertion that the poor does not receive justice in court made recently in a report of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching is contradicted by Judge Frederick A. Crane of the Court of Appeals. Speaking before the women members of the Kings county Republican club, he declared that "the chief litigation in our courts is today conducted by the poor or persons of moderate means and at no time and in no country have the rights and remedies of the law been so easily procured."

I am so happy that it frightens me.

These are the words that my heart days of the reunion of our little household and my husband's return to civilian life. For so many months we have walked through the valley of the shadow that now, when we have definitely reached the mountain stretched before us the "pleasant paths of peace" and, more attrac-

I cannot realize all at once the wonderful bliss that is mine.

I said as much to Dicky as we sat together in the sun parlor upon the last morning of my week's enforced vacation from school work—taken at the physician's orders—after my unfortunate accident upon the day of Dicky's first appearance in civilian clothes.

"Getting a dose of what the Scotch call 'fev' are you?" he asked quizzically, but he had his hand over his eyes, and his eyes, though

Juncus, still held infinite tenderness. "Well, how shall I go about it to cure you quickest?" Shall

I 'read or roan' or get up a distillation with the first pretty girl I see?

Either way, you'll have something to take your mind off this too blissful joy.

I sternly repressed the little shiver that shook me at the mention of the second alternative which Dicky was playfully proposing. Not for worlds would I have had him imagine that I remembered what his volatile nature had evidently forgotten—the misery which his interest in two beautiful women had cost me. With an effort that sent the blood to my cheeks I looked up at him mischievously.

"Whoever is the least trouble to you," I said demurely, and as Dicky threw back his head and laughed at my very easy to bring laughter to my husband's lips these days for he seems fairly intoxicated with the mere joy of being at home again—

rose to greet two familiar figures that had just emerged from the opening in the hedge between our house and that of little Mrs. Durkee, next door.

"You're not mad by me, are you, sweetheart?" Dicky clutched at my skirt in affected terror.

"Nonsense!" I replied in a low tone. "Don't you see? Mrs. Durkee and Alfred are coming over."

"AREN'T THEY AWFUL?"

Dicky bounded from his chair, threw open the door of the sun parlor and was across the lawn and hugging our little friend warmly by the time she had come across the bottom of the steps. We had had glimpses of the Durkees since Alfred returned, but this was the first time they had come across the lawn in the old informal way. Nothing could so have assured me that the dear old peaceful life had come back to us again.

"Dicky!" protested little Mrs.

Durkee playfully.

"Yes, ma'am. His voice was deeply apologetic. "I know I can't hug you as tightly as we both would like, on account of this game arm, but if you'll call around say two weeks from now I'll endeavor to make up for my remissness."

"Get along with you!" she gave him a playful push. "I'd like a chance to get a word in edgeways

with Madge."

"Don't worry about Madge," her son said impudently, as he slipped his arm around me and gave me a fraternal kiss. "She's getting along very nicely, thank you."

"Aren't they awful, Madge?" Little Mrs. Durkee uttered the platitude, which I had heard from her lips at least a score of times, as she settled her plump little self in one of the easy, veranda chairs. "Do you know, I think they must have been practicing talk like that with some of those pretty French girls over there, they're so brazen."

"Nonsense, Alf. We discovered!"

Dicky said melodramatically, as the little woman dumpled and preened herself like the bit of fluff and feathers she is, and then the two men plunged into a sea of reminiscence and exchanged experiences,

Would You? By FANNIE

Unlocking her own outer door and stepping into a long aisle of hallway, the rise and fall of conversation came promptly distinguishable to Mrs. Rifkin, and light bursting showers of women's laughter and the running undertone of male voices.Immediately and from the lighted front room, Henry Rifkin peered from an open door out into the withering light of the hallway, letting out a flare of meriment.

"Yes, Henry."

He slid out of the small opening and came padding down the length of the hall. He was in an eager state and his perspiration and per-turbation."You think, Henry, it's so nice you should be the last one to arrive to your own wedding anniversary?""But honey, didn't I telephone I'd be here?"He lifted his shoulders in a shrug and took a loose pinch of her cheek.

"Late, she says, like it was nothing with eighteen to supper on her own wedding anniversary to hold him back for thirty minutes. Samtrish's already eaten all the struddel off the table waiting."

She drew him by a pinch of coat sleeve into the bedroom, with the two gas jets singing full fan and an outlay of women's wraps and hats on the bureau and chest of drawers."Henry," she said, facing him before the bureau mirror so that they were both reflected, "guess where I been old man?""She came down yesterday for her second fitting appointment?"She laid her cheek to his, and he could feel her trembling against him.

"Yanci, you got chills?"

"I been up to Selig's, Henry."

"Where?"

"His own house. Get ready, hon, to be out of here like a flash."

He drew back his face, regarding her.

"Selig's?"

"You know, if I could get hold of the old man outside the bank once, Henry, where he'd be maybe more human—I could make him fork over that lead. I did, Henry."

"Yanci?"

"Got it out of him just like that!

Two thousand placed to our account tomorrow on a year at six per cent.
Easy just like that. Easy, Henry?"He sat down right into the litter on the bed."What—what you staring at me like that for, Henry? Huh?—Henry, couldn't it happen easy enough? All I done was make him see. What's a year's lead, Henry, when—""A year! My God, Yanci, in a year with such expenditures from moving how you expect we can meet a year's note?"She took his chin in the cup of her hand, tilting his head far back, standing over him so that her face shone down like a light."You think, hon, I couldn't see our way clear? I'd get up in with a debt hanging over, knowing how you can't sleep if we're even a day late with the rent? Just you follow me, Henry, Meeny, Henry, and see if I won't wear diamonds. Have I ever gone wrong on a calculation, hon?"Have I ever let you in for something you can't see through? If your Yanci thinks we can take care of that note, you willing to take your Yanci's word for it? Eh, Henry? Henry?"He folded her to him, mute, but his lips working for speech.A door opened with the sound of laughter instantly large and close, up. She sprang back from him, dragging him down hall, with her arm reached back for his heavier and lax hand.

A wave of ejaculation and the reproach lightly spoken rose at her entrance, and a front room full of guests easy with the familiarity of the oft-blended, broke out at her, all at once too soprano and too guttural.

"Well, it's about time!"

"Say, wait a minute, you think this is, anniversary without the Anne?""Look at her in the model that put the polo meet out of business!"She was busy with the brilliant glance and the quick retort.

"Say, gimme time, will you? Gimme time. Ain't it the saying, better late than never?""Yanci, the next time you invite me and my wife to your eighteenth anniversary I'll take a glass of tea and a strudel before I leave home.""Sam Pinsky, none of that!" The service in that little old Hungarian cafe of yours is so slow Rip Van Winkle could take his nap between goulash and dessert.""Look at her pants!" Bet she ran all the way."A swift and enthusiastic exodus to the long-laden table at one end of the room was taking place. Fruits and dainties, red and white pressed glassware, and at each place three graduated tumblers of colored wines shining out.

"Lemme sit next to the bride!"

"Look, Lee, he's going to sit next to Rose.""Aw, say, can't you let the kid and Barney sit together if they want to?"

"No, no, no, no!"

Move down.

In the midst of the confusion of adjustment of high brittle laughter and the back and forth of quickly conceived jests, Miss Zetta Rifkin, her high neck knobs rising above black chamois silk, rapped sharply with her fork against her plate edge."Everybody sit down, Sam, stop playin' clown.""Quit shipping the china," cried Barney, breaking a feat of dangling her hand."Barney, you quit teasing Aunt Zetta," cried Miss Leah Rifkin, turning a head like a sunflower toward him and pulling him down into place beside her.From his chair down table, Mr.
Sam Pinsky, bald, out the back of his hands like hairy coconuts immediately, raised the tallest of his three glasses."To the latest comer at this here party," he cried.Laughter and deep sucking draughts.And here, to the latest comer at this here party, and the latest com-er's hubble."

THE FAMILY MOTHER

There's always one in the family that shoulders the weight o' care,

There's always one with the needed strength for whatever there is to bear;

She mothers us all in her gentle way, smooths many a pillow sad,

And carries the load through the troubled times 'till the day when our skies grow glad;

She's mother and nurse and counsel, too—an angel of faith and cheer,

And it helps us all in our hours of grief to know that she's standin' near.

Her voice is sweet and her smile is bright and seldom we hear her sigh

And shoulders the burdens of grief and care till peace shall be ours again;

Unselfish, thoughtful and always kind, on a ceaseless round she goes,

Carrying cheer to the sick and wan, and lighting all our woes;

The dying cling to her hand at night and smile as they see her face,

And the living warm to her words of faith and her comforting touch of grace.

There's always one in the family that stands to the shock and pain,

And shoulders the burdens of grief and care till peace shall be ours again;

Unselfish, thoughtful and always kind, on a ceaseless round she goes,

Carrying cheer to the sick and wan, and lighting all our woes;

The dying cling to her hand at night and smile as they see her face,

And the living warm to her words of faith and her comforting touch of grace.

HAGAN TO HEAR WALLMAN CASE

Settlement of the controversy over the assignment to the existing vacancy of acting captain in the Police Department, which has developed a contest between Inspector Eddie Wallman and acting Captain William F. Woods over the position, will be decided by the office of City Attorney H. L. Hagan, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. P. Morse, who yesterday took the matter of the assignment under advisement, today referred the entire matter to City Attorney Hagan for investigation and report, and the legal question. Hagan said today he has not prepared his decision.

Meanwhile Secretary Frank C. Colburn of the Civil Service Board has submitted to Chief of Police J. F. Lynch, who has the appointing power with Commissioner Morse's approval, a copy of the recently created eligible list for the position, containing the name of Wallman as the head of the list and the name of Woods as second.

U. S. PURCHASES SHOW GROWTH

According to figures compiled by the National City Bank of New York, the high foreign cost of food stuffs and articles of luxury has not only had no deterrent effect on American imports but, on the contrary, has ap partly stimulated purchases in this country. In exemplifying this interesting state of affairs it is set forth in the bank's regular Foreign Trade Record publication, for release Feb. 1 that sugar for instance, while advancing in the foreign market from 80 to 100 per cent, was purchased by this country for 1918 delivery in quantities fifty per cent above the purchase of 1918.

Increase in the importation of diamonds, notwithstanding, great advance in their foreign price, has amounted to 100 per cent; an increase from $50,000,000 in 1918, to $100,000,000 in 1919. Raw silk is reported to show an advance in import price from $5.89 per pound in December 1918, to an average of $9.10 per pound in November 1919.

an average of 1000 per pound in November 1919, yet the quantity imported by this country advanced during that period thirty-three and one-third per cent.

Fine calf skin imports are another and very striking example. In 1911 skins were selling in the European market at eighteen cents per pound.

this country buying less than 8,000,000 pounds; but with the advance within one year to sixty-seven cents per pound, this country increased its purchase to $6,900,000 pounds, while the quadrupling of price increased the cost of these expensive luxuries from $3,000,000 in 1918 to $35,000,000 last year. Cost, since more than doubled in foreign price during this period, and at the same time we purchased $90,000,000 worth. In 1919, against $30,000,000 worth during 1918

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—San Francisco's census total will be recorded as close to 510,000 following a decision by the Chamber of Commerce to drop proposals to make an appeal for a recount. The action was taken after a checking up of the figures turned in by census enumerators. Under Supervisor Francis J. Mannix, and the names turned in after the official count had quit work.

The agitation for a recount grew out of the fact that many names were found uncounted but, with a large part of these names now turned in, it is not thought that more than 2000 have been overlooked.

AYDEN SEEKING S. F. FIRE CAUSE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—An investigation to fix the responsibility for the disastrous Berkshire apartment fire will be conducted by Fire Marshal James F. Layden, it was announced this morning.

A survey of the burned building and a checking up of the stories told by rescued tenants has convinced Layden that the blaze started in a collection of paints, oils, rags and rubbish which was placed near the gas meters in the basement. A preliminary investigation made by Sergeant Leo Brunner and George McLaughlin is to the same effect.

"I cannot say the exact cause of the blaze," said L. H. Sly, owner of the building, "but it started in the basement and was due to somebody's carelessness."

Standing in the room was responsible, in large measure, for the headway gained by the blaze, according to Fire Chief Murphy, who said that had fire alarm boxes been used, instead of attempts to telephone, the department might

Money Question Worries Mexicans

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—Issuance of paper money in denominations of one peso and 50 centavos, provided for in a presidential decree promulgated January 10, has caused uncertainty among small shopkeepers and peddlers. The issue of peso notes is limited to 15,000,000 and gold pesos to 10,000,000, and gold currency must be deposited with government before the paper is put into circulation.

Even before the notes appeared, notices were posted that the new currency would be accepted only at a discount of 40 per cent.

have been able to check the fire with a small loss.

Most of those injured in the fire in which Mrs. Mary E. Donoho, state secretary of the Rebekah assembly, lost her life, are doing well today. The most seriously hurt are: Mrs. Mildred Snyder, who has a fractured hip and leg, as well as a broken rib and burns about the face and hands; E. P. Snyder, first degree burns about face and neck, and Mrs. M. C. Nash, severely burned and not yet recovered from smoke suffocation. There will be no funeral services for Mrs. Donoho here. The body was sent to Los Angeles.

Girl Students Frivolous, 'Tech' High Dean Declares

School girls of today are different. Easy going, frivolous and levity characterize their demeanor. Too many dances punctuate their school life. Thus Miss Ruth Wilbur, dean of girls at Technical high school, summarizes the problem facing teachers and parents.

"This condition is found not only in Oakland, but in Wellesley and Vassar and in schools throughout the United States," Miss Wilbur told the Parent-Teachers' Association of Technical high school yesterday afternoon. "We are doing all in our power to combat the situation."

"For instance, an old fashioned party, one that most of the girls will doubtless term as not at all 'classy,' is to take the place of the freshman reception at Technical high this year. Stunts, get-acquainted games and refreshments will take the place of dancing."

Miss Wilbur advocated athletics for girls. "Beautiful sports provide an outlet for their energy, build them up, and one seldom sees an athletic school girl 'boy struck' in trouble," she said. Hiking and radio clubs will be organized at Technical high this spring and a plan, whereby each freshman girl will have a senior advisor, instituted. A scholarship committee has been appointed, which checks up on honors and class work and stimulates the students to greater endeavor.

Parents should concern themselves more in the life of their daughters in school, in the opinion of Miss Wilbur. "In a public institution, we cannot go to a girl and say: 'You cannot wear that red skirt.' We have no authority to say what she shall wear and what not. Those things should be regulated in the home. All we can do is to suggest and by inference bring the girls to the realization that they should not wear rouge and shoddy garments. Our class in home economics is helping wonderfully, in this regard, however. Most of the girls are quite sane in their dress," concluded Miss Wilbur.

Room 45 has been definitely assigned to the members of the Parent-Teachers' Association and the women will meet regularly each second and fourth Monday of the month to discuss needs of their children in connection with school work. The young organization has been handicapped in the past by not having a permanent meeting place, due to crowded conditions in Technical high school, but Principal P. M. Jackson has assured them that room 45 until the new wing is built, and then they will have a room all their own.

Plans have been endorsed by all concerned and sent to the Board of Education for the building of this new wing and we hope to have work commence as soon as school is out this spring. The new wing is to be built into the new wing by Christmas, 1920," said Principal Jackson. A letter, which he is sending to the parents of every freshman in Technical high school, was read to the Parent-Teacher Association yesterday afternoon by Jackson. The letter urged mutual interest in school work and told how the students were cared for and regulated.

All Texas Menaced by Pink Boll Worm

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 10.—Regulation of cotton growing in districts infected with the pink boll worm will not eradicate the pest, according to an opinion expressed by W. P. Hunter of the United States Department of Agriculture, following a conference with Governor W. P. Hobby, at which it was decided that Texas laws will not permit the establishment of non-cotton growing zones.

Dr. Hunter said that a losing fight is being waged against the pest, which is spreading, and unless laws to authorize the prohibition of cotton growing in infected districts are passed, all of Texas will eventually have the pink boll worm.

Counties infected at present are Jefferson, Chambers, Galveston and parts of Harris, Brazoria, Liberty and Hardin. Reeves and Ward counties had infected areas, but it is believed that the pest has been eradicated there.

771 Attend Honolulu School; 64 Americans

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 10.—Sixty-four children out of a total of 771 attending McKinley High School in Honolulu are Caucasian Americans, according to figures compiled by educational officials.

Statistics show that out of a senior class of fifty-three there are only three Americans, two girls and a boy. In the junior class there are twelve Americans, in the sophomore class twenty-one, and in the freshman class, twenty-eight Americans. Japanese bulk heaviest in the school, there being 237 of this nationality. Chinese come next with 230. There are forty-four American-Hawaiians, thirty-two Chinese-Hawaiians, twenty-five Portuguese, twenty-one Koreans, fourteen Hawaiians, twelve English-Hawaiians and seven Portuguese-Hawaiians.

Interesting combinations of races appear on the registry of McKinley High, the most complicated being recorded by one boy whose nationality is given as Scotch-Swedish-Jewish-American. Another appears as a German-Japanese-Hawaiian, while there are two Irish-Hawaiians and one Scotch-Irish-Hawaiian. There are no Filipino boys in the school, but that race is represented by two girls.

British and French Ships Shell Odessa

LONDON, Feb. 10.—One British and one French cruiser were bombarding Odessa, a wireless despatch from Moscow said today. Fierce street fighting preceded the capture of the city by Bolsheviks, the despatch added.

WORLD TRADE NEGLECTED.

The spectacular further recession of foreign exchange last week was coincidental with, if not largely due to, the publication of the report of British foreign trade for December and the realization by business and financial interest both in Europe and the United States of its significance. Britain's exports during December increased by only $13,000,000, while her imports rose by about $123,000,000. The adverse trade balance for the month was nearly $250,000,000 which destroyed the optimism created by the showing of November.

This large increment in the existing debts against British trade proved previous calculations wrong and the disappointment had a great deal to do with the drop in sterling and with other European exchanges. But despite this disappointment over December the trade returns for Great Britain hold much encouragement for better conditions during the ensuing year. They contain verification of THE TRIBUNE'S warning that British trading and financial interests are making rapid strides toward recovery and that this country cannot safely depend upon the inability of Europe as a protection of its own advantages.

Exports of British goods in December, although the increase was small, were practically twice as great as in January 1919. The export of improved goods rose from $20,000,000 in January to $100,000,000 in December. This indicates that England is coming back as a world re-export center. The American Chamber of Commerce of London furnishes an analysis of the trade figures from which the following is quoted:

"The adverse trade balance for the year amounted to 669 millions sterling, against which will apply Britain's 'Invisible Exports' which have been estimated by the Board of Trade at 400 millions sterling for freight charges, 80 millions in interest on foreign investments, and 40 millions in insurance charges, bank charges, commissions, etc. These calculations would total 520 millions, leaving an adverse balance of 149 millions as compared with the pre-war favorable balance of 226 millions.

"A considerable reduction of the excess of imports over exports is expected in 1920 for two reasons in particular, says the American Chamber. First, the imports in the early months of 1919 are stated to have consisted largely of balances of deliveries of war materials which will, of course, not recur in 1920. Second, 1919 was largely a year of restocking for British manufacturers and the retained imports of raw materials alone at the end of 1919 were 61 percent in value of all other imports retained for the twelve months. In 1913 this figure was only 50 percent. In 1920 therefore Britain should be able to save accordingly on imports of raw materials while the exports of finished goods should be increased.

"Despite the fact that Britain's 1919 imports were more than twice her 1913 imports in value, the American Chamber points out that they were less than four-fifths the 1913 imports in quantity. The average cost of 1913 imports figures out at about £14 a ton; in 1919 it was about £11 per ton. Great Britain is still importing less than her pre-war quantities, so the possibilities of that market, once exchange difficulties are removed, should be apparent to all."

The outstanding features of this is that Britain is content with a smaller quantity of foreign goods than before the war, which will help greatly when prices fall; that her invisible income from abroad and on imports is very large, cutting down the visible adverse trade balance by approximately $2,500,000,000 a year; and that the re-export business has already attained a large measure of recovery. These facts do not concern American business, financial and shipping interests alone. They concern every American who works, for they have a potential effect upon the enterprise of this country.

Under the circumstances it is stupid for the United States government to continue its neglect of matters which vitally concern the prosperity of American foreign trade, which in turn means the prosperity of American agriculture and industry. Fourteen months after the war we have no shipping policy, no settled program of operation of the great new merchant marine. The matter of free ports has been before Congress three years, but is still unsettled—a matter vital to the re-export business of this country, a matter in which is bound up the opportunity for the United States to become a world center of re-exports. This country ought to be competitor with England, if not the leader, in the re-export business.

Action now is the demand of the country. In all conscience enough time has been squandered, assassinated by politicians who have tried to exploit the peace treaty to their personal advantage. Procrastination and wobbling is destroying the chances of America to be a great world nation in peace. It is a crime of officialdom.

MAZZINI'S DREAM.

Fifty years ago Mazzini, Italian patriot and democrat, had a dream of seeing four great despotisms, Austria, Germany, Russia and Turkey, transformed into a community of self-governing states. Substantial realization has come more quickly than Mazzini hoped for.

Italy has been unified and restored the territory seized by Austria. Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Jugo-Slavia, and Greece constitute a tier of free states extending from the Baltic Sea to the Bosphorus. These states have not attained ideal proportions either as to the efficacy and form of their government or the justice to racial aspirations. But they represent vast improvement upon the old order. Upon this point Prof. Robert H. Lord aptly says:

"Whatever mistakes there may have been, whatever selfish interests have occasionally come unpleasantly to light, I think it may be justly affirmed that on no similar occasion in the past has so earnest and systematic an effort been made to settle territorial questions on the basis, not of interest or the convenience of the Great Powers, but of the rights and aspirations of the people directly concerned; that the peace conference at Paris has liberated and unified more nations than any previous European Congress, or all the congresses of the last century put together, and that the principle of nationality has never before seen so sweeping and signal a victory."

Mazzini the Italian patriot would appreciate the mighty changes the peace treaty has decreed, changes of which he dreamed, realization for which he so ardently worked. But the Italian government of the present is unappreciative of the lessons of the past. It is not content with a unified Italy, happy possessor of restored territories and new opportunities. It has chosen to assume the role of provocator of trouble for purposes of aggrandizement of power and commercial gain. It has elected to strike a blow at the tier of new states formed out of the old despotisms of central and eastern Europe.

Italy disregards the peace treaty and sends covertly a notoriety seeking free-booter to seize Fiume and other ports and territory on the Adriatic coast, strikes at the hegemony of the southern slavs. What will Italy do when she at length realizes that the self-governing states who have lately won their freedom look upon her as a despotic autocrat, scheming for new dominions and deserving of destruction? Italy is proving herself unworthy of Mazzini.

UPHOLDING THE LAW.

The action of Governor Morrow of Kentucky in throwing troops into Lexington and in ordering them to fight rather than to allow a mob to secure possession of a prisoner is to be commended. It is an answer to the spirit of lawlessness that has made mob-action in the United States possible.

There is no excuse in this country for a mob to take the law in its own hands. In the days when court action, in flagrant cases of this particular kind was slow and deserved punishment was postponed or delayed, there have been furnished more reasons for an understanding of the popular demand to wreak vengeance.

The Lexington case, in its lesson, will do much to prevent similar actions. It will hold up to the lawless the futility of assaults upon the courts and order and, in its toll of death, will show how pitiful and dangerous, as well as how useless men may become when falsely inspired with a view that their convictions and sentiments are stronger and better agencies than are the courts. The man against whom the wrath of the Lexington mob was directed had been tried and sentenced. He is to be executed according to the statute and after the chance of error has been examined. In his execution by law the State will have spoken. In cases of this kind there are no longer unreasonable delays.

To give a man over to a mob is to sacrifice respect for the law and to degrade permanently each man in that mob. Governor Morrow held that it were better to fire in the ranks of the approaching manhunters than to give them their hour of bloodlust. His decision precipitated a crisis and brought the issue to the sharpest possible point. There should be no quibbling nor turning back. Mob lynchings in the United States must be stopped by that organized public opinion, the law.

With more governors like the one in Kentucky one of the greatest blemishes in our national life will be removed.

Beet sugar growers in California are to share with refiners any profits that may come with higher prices. Under the contracts made this year the farmer is to be paid on the same basis as a year ago with the stipulation that for every cent, net, the company receives over 10 cents a pound for sugar, the farmer is to receive $2 for each ton. It is a deal in which the farmer has everything to gain and nothing to lose and one which will help guarantee a large average of sugar beets

NOTES and COMMENT

It says on a cookery page that "the humble prune is a rare delicacy if properly handled." This should be corrected right at this point, to the effect that the prune is not humble under any circumstances. It may have been on the boarding-house joke, flourished, but is not in this modern time when the price is 40 cents a pound.

The Tombstone man who ran up a red flag as a piece of humor, the town being wrought up over the L. W. W. deportation trials, had the lamentable perspective so often disclosed by the practical joker. He was put in jail, and probably wondered that everybody did not at once fall for the humor of his performance.

It is quite interesting that the Fresno fat hog sales last Saturday prices in excess of Chicago quotations were realized. And it was not a blue-blooded lot on which the quotation was based, but regular porkers. Chicago for more than half a century has been the hog center, and that it has been outdone here is another squeal of triumph for California.

The San Francisco Bar Association will discuss "Some Application of Modern Science in Police Work" with "The California Society for Mental Hygiene," the "California Branch of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology," and the delinquency section of the Commonwealth Club. Out of all this imposing array some hard-headed method should be evolved of circumventing the auto bandit and the auto thief.

It isn't exactly a dilemma, but it is a unique situation—the distribution of ordinance captured by the Americans in the war. There are 1300 cannon and 4000 machine guns in the lot, and only 4000 counties in the United States, and many of these are not clamoring. The rage for a captured cannon to display on the public square came in with the Spanish war, and has seemingly pretty well exhausted itself.

More than the usual number of persons are eating toaststools this year. That old way of distinguishing—if you live they are toaststools; if you die they are toaststools—may be definite, but it is drastic and not practicable for those desirous of continuing on for a while.

The man who said there were two doors to his house, and that his wife could go through the one she chose, but must not come back through either, was rather good at epigrams, but as a family man was not all admirable.

Just exactly what the Greeks want is a hundred years ago Bozaris died fighting to throw off the Turkish yoke, but since that time they have not seemed to strike a steady gait in self-government. During the great war Constantine found it advisable to abdicate, and now it is represented that they want him back. Civil war is threatened. There is that wheeze about Greek meeting Greek.

The corrected list gives the American casualties of the war as 681,115. It isn't at all possible that some pretty good Americans are concluding that the quid pro quo has not been commensurate. At least, that results are not as satisfying as a patriotic nation expected.

Though Blasco Ibanez talks with a readiness that amounts to loquacity, he is so ingenious as to disarm the critic who would charge egotism. He seems to have a vision that enables him to consider peoples and national trends from a loftier point of view than is generally attained by the great writers and philosophers of the era.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

News of all kinds is awful scarce. Now, on the level, if you had to get up a newspaper in this man's town every day, what would you put in it? And what the next day, and the next and next?—Richmond News.

Willows is to have a new hotel. The estimated cost is $215,000. It will be located at the corner of Walnut and Butte streets, having a frontage of 390 feet on Butte and 100 on Walnut. The cost of the lots will be $30,000.—Woodland Democrat.

A large force of men are gathered on the San Marcos Pass road and extensive improvement of the road will be pushed vigorously. This county has appropriated from the general fund $25,000 for this work, and George Owen Knapp and C. K. G. Billings, property owners on the road have contributed an additional amount equal to about twenty-five per cent of this sum, they being permitted to name the engineer in charge of the work.—Lompoc Review.

Now that the Wilson trial is at an end we wonder what the village gossips will talk about. Afternoon teas and luncheons will lose their charm.—Marysville Appeal.

Don't ask us what that line, "Pass that Glass," in yesterday's paper meant. It was typographical misplacement and under the circumstances meant nothing.—Reading Searchlight.

The Mountain Dancing Club gave one of its delightful dances recently at Woodland. As an innovation the participants received the regular price of admission, but in making the best of her mainly gaily and every man trying to appear at ease in feminine togs. It is said that some of the gentlemen appeared particularly well in furbelows, and the women very cleverly assumed the male attire.—Sierra Valley News.

CANADA'S EXPERIENCE

For nearly a decade now Canada has had a law providing for compulsory mediation in all disputes affecting industries of a public character—that is to say, transport, mining, lighting, telephones and telegraphs.

No lockout and no strike is lawful in any of these industries until after mediation has been tried. The board of mediation consists of one representative for each disputant and a third chosen by the two, or in case they cannot agree, by the minister of labor.

Violation of the law is punished in the case of the employer by a fine from $100 to $1000 for each day the violation continues, and in the case of the worker by a fine of from $10 to $50 for each day.

If mediation fails, a lockout or strike is permitted. Under this law in the course of eight years 177 disputes were submitted to mediation, and in all but nineteen cases mediation was effective.

Since a dispute is not submitted until it has passed beyond the possibility of settlement by negotiation between the employer and workers, it may be assumed fairly that Canada escaped 150 or more open ruptures in vital industries as a result of this law.

In place of compulsory mediation the President's industrial conference proposes voluntary arbitration, with binding effect for unanimous decisions. We are inclined to think the Canadian plan is the better. Voluntary arbitration leaves the door wide open for avoidance of peaceful methods of settlement and closes the door on strikes only when disputants choose to enter the conference room and can reach a unanimous agreement.—Chicago Evening Post.

CURIOSITY REWARDED.

Walking along the sands at Weymouth last autumn, writes a correspondent, I saw a corked bottle which had been washed up by the tide. There was a piece of paper inside, so I drew the cork and tried to extract it, but at last getting impatient at the way it eluded me, I broke the bottle and the message was revealed: "Whoever finds this bottle will find all the beer gone."

TRAINING FOR LEADERS.

Junior Chambers of Commerce represent a happy idea in provision for young men who are just entering on business responsibilities. They accustom young men to associated action with business men, and cultivate important questions, cultivate public spirit, afford through a helpful apprenticeship a preparation for membership in the chief commercial and civic bodies of large industrial cities, the Senior Chambers of Commerce we should, perhaps, call them now since the remarkable development of the Junior bodies. In short, the Junior Chambers of Commerce provide an equipment for the future leaders of trade which, in view of modern methods, is almost as important as a training in the details and technique of the particular line of business selected for their careers.

With nearly 150 junior organizations with about 35,000 enthusiastic members already formed in the country, the St. Louis branch of the movement has planned a national federation of all junior bodies. No other local chamber has had a greater success than that of St. Louis. An organization of national scope will at least mark an interesting stage in the movement, and ought, by enlarging the scale of cooperation, to increase notably the opportunities of these useful bodies.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

HEALTH and HADDINESS

How Science Uses Melodie to Remove Some Maladie

By DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University)

Music is one of the most health giving gifts. It removes from the heart wild, destructive yearning, and the weight of sorrow and worry. Like chemical medicines, music has great influence over the passions.

Next to surgery, I give to music one of the high places of honor in the art of healing the mind and body. It is healing to the wounded and its soothing strains help to conquer physical woes.

One musical scribbler, Edward F. Dolsky, advises "musical baths" for what ails you, just as some physicians advise hot, cold, needle, sulphur, salt or alkaline baths.

When sweet music sets the all in motion to vibrate like a door knocker upon your ear drums, the physiological rhythm thus set up moves more than the hairs and stops in the organ of hearing. Fibres of muscle, heart and arteries attune themselves to the harmony, thus established.

Obviously, Professor Podolsky's prescription for the big coarse, materialistic merchant, financier or man-about-town to immerse themselves in a music bath is not so far amiss.

An observant music critic, Mr. J. F. Cooke, says very accurately that we have no accumulated scientific evidence of the accuracy of the statement that hearing music accelerates the "circulation of the blood in every instance, but it is easily believable that in many cases music has this remarkable stimulating action and that the individual is benefited by it. Who has not been at an organ recital or at a band concert where the more physical vibrations of the instruments are distinctly to be felt. The idea of a "music bath," therefore, is not extravagant, and we have often had the idea come to us when listening to beautiful music in large volume.

It is recognized by many psychological physiologists that the indulgence in a music bath once, twice or more, a week will tend to maintain and elevate the tone of one's mind. It is, moreover, recognized that many of the detrimental emotions, such as fear and anger, are easily dispelled by music, soft, soothing music and gay, sprightly music.

Independent of its soothing effect upon the irritated mind, music has decided physiological effects. When you listen to a lively, spirited, passionate melody, the blood leaps and bounds to the veins throughout. This exhilaration is healthful, for the toxin-laden blood is rushed to the lungs and purified by the quicker, deeper breathing, more blood enters the muscles, smiling and joy-rippling nature of man is brought out through the medium of music.

If you can play any instrument, play, rejoice and sing. After the performance of an exhausting task or the expenditure of energy, listen to music or play any instrument and you will refresh your tired mind and tune up your exhausted muscles.

Concerning Epidemics

In Epidemics the germ fastens most readily on fruitful soil—a system that is in poor condition.

Stoppage of food waste, and the resulting decay, generates poisons which are absorbed by the blood, lowering its power of resistance to withstand the attack of outside germs such as influenza.

In plain terms, constipation encourages Epidemics.

If you keep your intestinal passage clear and functioning regularly to get rid of this waste, your system will be kept in good condition to successfully cope with disease germs to which you may be exposed.

That is what the Nujol Treatment does—without straining, and without drawing on the vitality of other parts of the body, as do other forms of treatment.

In plain terms, Nujol discourages constipation and its dangerous consequences.

Keep your body clean inside with the Nujol Treatment. It is the best possible Sickness Prevention.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Beware of products represented to be "the same as Nujol." You suffer from substitutes.
